

PEER EDUCATORS WANTED

Position open until filled

Submit application online: <https://provost.nmsu.edu/student-resources/first-year-initiatives/Peer-Education-UNIV-350.html>

Leading the way to success

Peer Educators serve as a role model and mentor to FYEX 1112 students on how to be successful at NMSU. In UNIV 350 you will learn about student development theory, leadership skills, classroom management, and large group presentations. UNIV 350 provides you the opportunity to co-instruct the FYEX 1112 Freshman Year Experience course, sharing your experiences and wisdom to help first-year students transition into the college environment.

Selection Criteria

1. Achievement of at least junior status by the start of FALL 2022.
2. Academic success in college as measured by a 3.0 cumulative GPA
3. Demonstrate an interest in helping fellow students be successful at NMSU
4. Demonstrate an involvement in campus life
5. Demonstrate an appreciation for diversity
6. Possess a willingness and ability to model appropriate behaviors for new students

Responsibilities

1. Complete Peer Education Training Program
2. Attend all FYEX 1112 class sessions of your assigned section
3. Enroll and attend UNIV 350 (Peer Education, 3 credit hours)
4. Assist in the planning of syllabus and course content
5. Assist instructor in arranging for visitors, speakers, and campus tours
6. Assist in facilitating class discussions
7. Present lessons and information on course topics
8. Facilitate in-class, group, or individual structured activities
9. Communicate with class members outside of class
10. Provide feedback to the instructor
11. Serve as a student liaison to the instructor