Fall 2023: MOCI Welcomes New And Returning Students

As we embark on this exciting journey at New Mexico State University, we extend a warm welcome to both our newcomers and familiar faces. Your presence enriches our community, and we are committed to supporting your academic and social success. Here are some helpful tips to guide you through the semester:

1. Connect with Professors: Build relationships with your professors. Office hours are invaluable for clarifying doubts and gaining insights.
2. Utilize Resources: NMSU offers academic resources like tutoring centers and writing labs. Don't hesitate to seek help when needed.
3. Time Management: Craft a study schedule that aligns with your energy levels. Break tasks into manageable chunks to avoid overwhelm.
4. Join Cultural Groups: Explore cultural organizations that resonate with your background. They offer a supportive network and a chance to celebrate diversity.
5. Mentorship Matters: Seek mentors among older students or faculty who can guide you academically and personally.
6. Balance is Key: Engage in extracurriculars that spark your passion while leaving room for self-care and relaxation.

Remember, you're not alone on this journey. NMSU's community is here to uplift and empower you. Embrace challenges, celebrate victories, and make the most of every opportunity. Here's to a semester filled with growth, learning, and meaningful connections.

Men of Color Study & Chill Session

Looking for a tranquil space to enhance your academic journey while connecting with peers? We invite you to the Men of Color Study & Chill Session, hosted every Wednesday from 3 pm to 5 pm at the American Indian Student Center. Although the name highlights men of color, this event is open to all students seeking a serene environment to study and catch up on coursework. Here's what you can expect:

- Productive Study Atmosphere: Immerse yourself in a calm and focused setting, ideal for tackling assignments, readings, and projects.
- Collaboration Opportunities: Engage in group study or collaborate with fellow students from diverse backgrounds. Exchange ideas, share knowledge, and grow together academically.

No matter your background or identity, this session welcomes you to experience the power of collective learning. Study smarter, connect deeper, and embrace the journey with us. We look forward to seeing you there!

What's New?: MOCI Welcome Back Social @ Pete's Patio

The MOCI will be hosting a Welcome Back social on the 5th of September, 2023 from 4:00 PM to 6:00 PM at Pete's Patio. Whether you're a returning familiar face or a newbie to NMSU, this is your golden ticket to kick off the semester with style. Grab your squad, bring your dancing shoes, and let's create memories that will last a lifetime. Come experience:

Jammin' Beats: Live music that will have your head boppin' and your feet tapping.

Men of Color Tabling at Corbett Center

The Men of Color joined other associations on the NMSU campus to engage, educate and foster camaraderie amongst students. The atmosphere around the table buzzed with community spirit. Students explored the multifaceted essence of our community. Beyond the colorful banners and engaging visuals, the interaction offered a genuine connection amongst all participants.
